TOP—FORMAL OPENING DECEMBER 8, 1948 — J. F. O'Conner, Edith Eddy Ward, Mrs. O'Conner and the O'Conner Jrs. live it up at the balloon festooned dinner dance celebration . . . white dinner jackets and evening gowns have kept their swing . . .

CENTER—1948 CLUB OPENING — This lovely water ballet celebrated the December 8 opening of our club. The late olympic star Dutch Smith, atop the high diving board called the signals for the daringly! suited chorus . . . Bikinis at that time were just a glint in the French Riviera's eye.

BOTTOM—EARLY PALM DESERT — First two cottages built in Palm Desert Townsite now located on grounds of Shadow Mountain Country Club . . . can you believe? (From Cliff Henderson collection)

VIRGINIA'S REEL

● Palm Desert's dramatic story is even more exciting when one can look back 20 years and remember the scene along Highway 111 when there were few landmarks.

IN 1947 in the heat of the summer my husband, Edward Lester Smith, and I were a writer-photographer team doing feature stories for the Los Angeles Times Home Magazine and living in the Hollywood Hills when Cliff Henderson invited us to come to an unknown area he was developing beyond Palm Springs.

WE ACCEPTED CLIFF HENDERSON'S INVITATION, but how we finally found Cliff and his new as yet unbuilt Shadow Mountain Club, we will never know for at that time only a boating lake surrounded by a few palm trees was visible. Oh! yes, quite a distance beyond, surrounded by sand, were two cottages which were planned to adjoin the projected "Shadow Mountain Club's sporting 9 hole turfed golf course" . . . and more sand, sand, sand everywhere.

WE STAYED OVERNIGHT in one of the little cottages and Ed photographed the lake and we met Cliff's charming auburn tressed "girl Friday" Edy Ward. Little did we know, that hot summer day, that this same vivacious, fun loving gal was to play such a prominent part in making Palm Desert and the Shadow Mountain Club the wonderlands they are today. Ed's photographs were used in the brochures which were soon to be printed, publicizing the "Dramatic Story of Palm Desert . . . from Wasteland to Wonderland".

DECEMBER OF 1948 we made a return trip to Palm Desert to photograph Edith Eddy Ward's new home which she and her mother Mrs. Margaret Ward had built on San Luis Rey (now Sand and Shadows Hotel).

MRS. MARGARET WARD, who her many friends lovingly call "Bunny" had started her painting career and this new inspired artist also had a gift and date shop where she displayed her colorful desert paintings.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN CLUB had opened (December 8) and it was the gayest spot on the desert with interesting and prominent Los Angeles and Hollywood guests rejoicing in the wonderful weather and beauty of the new plam fringed spa, fabulous pool and boating lake. Golf had not as yet overtaken the area and tennis was "the sport" and it was fun to play with Cliff (a champion), and his many top notch netters.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN CLUB'S OPENING December 8 was a gala affair with an aquacade taking the spotlight in the figure eight, 320,000 gallon pool. Former Olympic diving star, the late "Dutch" Smith was master of ceremonies and a "Who's Who" of celebrities attended the four day affair. There was also a rodeo, cruising and sailing on the lake, an Old West Parade, Monte Montana's cowboy troupe, formal dinner-dances, and tea dances . . . you name it, and Cliff Henderson had it for the enjoyment of the club's members and guests.

AMONG THE "WHO'S WHO" at the club opening festivities were Rory Calhoun, the late Hedda Hopper, Randolph Scott, the late Dick Powell and June Allyson, Edgar Bergen, George Murphy and many others.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN CLUB, PALM DESERT COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION OFFICERS at that time included President Oscar A. Trippet, Vice-president Stephen W. Royce, and Secretary-treasurer Frank W. Bireley. Directors included, Frank Bireley, Clifford W. Henderson, Leonard K. Firestone, Stephen W. Royce, and Oscar A. Trippet. Board of Governors were General H. Arnold, Edgar Bergen, Frank W. Bireley, Earl Coffman, Thomas Colny, E. L. Cord, Leonard K. Firestone, Clifford W. Henderson, Emmett H. Jones, Henry King, Harold Lloyd, Dr. John P. Lordan, Alden Roach, Stephen W. Royce, Donald Russ, Carl B. Squier, William Lyman Stewart Jr., and Oscar A. Trippet. With such an impressive list, how could Palm Desert miss . . . and it didn't.

THE NEXT 20 YEARS FOR PALM DESERT? What will it bring? It has been estimated that Palm Desert will have 54,000 permanent residents by 1980 and the foothills will be spotted with homes.

Virginia Andrews Smith, Editor

JIGGERS! THE LAW — Legal advice was plentiful at the club on Thanksgiving day when Attorney Willedd Andrews (center) thought to be the oldest practicing lawyer in Los Angeles, celebrated his 83rd birthday. Champagne reception for him included lawyers and their wives. Left to right here, are Justice Frank Balthis of Newport Beach, Andrews, Attorney John Nelson Hurtt of Palm Desert Country Club and Newport Beach, and in background Attorney Richard Robinson of Palm Desert, Attorney Frank Moore of Indio and Paul Bryan Jr. of Eldorado Country Club and Newport Beach who is a pre-law student at U.S.C., the honored guest's alma mater '09.

New Year's Eve at Shadow Mountain Country Club promises to be the most gala in many a year. It will be black tie as usual and there will be great entertainers on hand to add to your delight. Cocktails 6:30 p.m. on and dinner will be served from 8:30 p.m. The tab, $15.00 per person. Please make your reservations early!

1967—New Year's Day will be guaranteed to induce you to break those foolish resolutions you made around five p.m. the night before and soooo painlessly too!!! As a starter, members and their guests are invited to attend a celebrity brunch when we will introduce Harold's latest concoction, the "things", so do come back to make your "Come Backs"! "Things" and brunch will be very quietly and quickly served between the hours of eleven and two. The "Telly" will be tuned in on the Sunday football game. For those non-football fans we have a great news item, our jam sessions have become so popular that on New Years Day starting at 2:30 p.m. we will be on the air waves over station K G O L, 1270 on your dial.

The club will be open and serving breakfast, lunch and dinner on Monday and Tuesday, January second and third. A television will be set up in the cozy corner of the golfers lounge for viewing the Tournament of Roses and the Rose Bowl Game on Monday the 2nd.

* * *

The Shadow Mountain Country Club's eighteenth Anniversary Party will be held on Saturday, January 21st, 1967. Cocktails at 6:00 and Dinner at 8:00. Reservations early, Please!

On January 28th the Shadow Mountain Country Club will again be the setting for a festive Tennis Dinner Dance. We will also be welcoming the Balboa Bay Club plus a surprise Tennis GREAT. The dress, informal, the atmosphere relaxed.

Mrs. Don Nielson (Madeline) has gifted us with a lovely painting. The chances on the painting (at $1.00 each) will go on sale at the Club December 21st. We hope to raise sufficient funds for much needed back drops on our courts.

The lucky winner will be announced during the evening. Your support of this endeavor will surely be appreciated! When you see the painting which will be on exhibit you will agree with this scribe that the winner will have a treasure!

Friday, January 27th has been set aside for the Shadow Mountain Teen-Dinner-Dance. Semi-formal dress - music with a swinging beat and a few surprises and treats. Please call Tony for reservations, $6.00 per couple.

* * *

Last, but not least, the members and staff wish to thank Santa's helpers, Marian Henderson, Irene Fenton and Natalie Hale for coming to the rescue of your flu bitten social director and decorating so beautifully all the Christmas trees for the club.

* * *

SCENE AROUND — Friday, December 2 proved to be an enchanted evening at the Shadow Mountain Country Club — Guest of Honor for the dinner-dance was Tennis Great, Alice Marble. During the evening, manager Rudy Richter presented Miss Marble with an honorary membership and introduced sports writer Braven Dyer, and well known tennis figures Magda Rurac, Roxie Turpin, George Anderson and Jack Frost. Among the smiling faces seen across a crowded room were those of George Beebe and Patti, the Bob Kennedys, Bob Cafferys, the Bob Salms, Joe Garcias. Bill Youngs, Dr. and Mrs. Aloys Heyen, the Clif Mylls, Ross Pattens, Frank Moores, Elaine Chaddick, Zetta Castle, Bill Canning, Marian Henderson, the John Hurttts, Joe Regorahs, Tony Herrera, Freeman Dierlam and many many more.

Be an angel night (and all week-end) was one huge success—natch, with Hazel Snyder and Marty Hill at the tiller and sheet. Vikki Carr sang like an angel and won all our hearts—Muzz Marcellino, leader of the band, Jack Slattery and all the Art Linkletter "Houseparty" music makers and staff did a super job on the show—could have danced all night! Glimpsed as they drifted by on the dance floor were the Guy Warrens, the Paul Digles, Dr. & Mrs. Kenneth Phillips, Judge & Mrs. Rouse, Senator and Mrs. Gordon Cologne, Dr. & Mrs. Jack Dammerel, the Sam Grays, Arthur Sanders, Charles Rowes, John Hurttts, George Andersons, SOCIAL DIRECTOR — Judy (Mrs. Richard) Robinson the club's popular new party mixer and P. R. The Angel Houseparty Sunday Jam Session was also the scene of Eve Hurtt's surprise soiree honoring hubby John's birthday, their 16th wedding anniversary, and to meet Mrs. Frederick A. (Helen) Brown, mother of Judy Robinson and a charter member of S.M.C.C. here to spend the holidays with the Robinsons. Attending the lovely affair were Monte Wenck, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Handen, the Robert Bowmans of Emerald Bay, Col. and Mrs. George Harmon, Jean Weaver and guest Mrs. Schaffer, and Lois Healy.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN WOMEN'S GOLF ASSOCIATION NEWS

The second tournament of the TANGLESTICKS GROUP of the Par 3 Course will be held on Sunday, January 15th — The first tournament held last month on December 11th was a huge success with a large turnout and we are looking forward to as good a group or better this time. Prizes for the December Party included canned hams, crackling rose wines, special cheeses, Christmas fruit filled candies and wine jellies. On January 15th the prizes will be different but just as pleasing. This is a fun group and one of our most popular events — so please be on hand for a most pleasant and enjoyable day.

PEPSI SET

With JANE PELGRAM

Would you believe that the Holidays have come and gone with a couple of Pepsi-set parties that were REALLY ZAM . . . it started with the traditional Christmas party and an Anti-Riot Act that found your club catering to three age groups, with car models, Americana metal sets and such, for the "elderst" muffalos, and batons for the "middles"; and actual mechanical ducks, bunnies and other instant hits (like Santa Claus in person!) for the "juves" like 3, 4, 5!

THE BIG COOL FOR JANUARY is a repeat . . . and this time would you believe Bill Slater, Dick Biondi or Dave Hull will be on hand? . . . so get yourself up in your madest clad, junk jewelry and a hairdo for the happening, grab a favorite friend and help make it a chop JANUARY 27, SAME PLACE, SAME PRICE.

BIRTHDAY PARTY OF THE MONTH is Saturday, January 7th at 2 p.m. January, of course, is for you Capricorn Kittens and Kats (and a purr-fect month for your ambitions to be realized)! . . . also you Aquarians (it's your year to be Miss or Mr. All-Around, so go after what you want, you'll get it this year!). That's like two o'clock in the afternoon party time . . . ju-u-st about the time some stalwart Shadow Mountain members are always tempting tourists into the big heated pool . . . the tempters being Ken Mundy, Brian Anderson, Aram Riley and Chuck O'Niel!

SPEAKING OF SWIMMING, have you dug the glowing get ups in Jack Petrie's pro shop at the club? ZOW!, what a way to splurge on a new fun clad, whether it's swimming, golf or tennis that's YOUR madness!

KAREN PETRIE, Jack's lovely daughter, along with Linda Satterfield, decided to forget desert slumber parties at home, for a vacation in La Costa, but when they get back we'll get more news for your February issue of SUN SPOTS . . . till then, may all your quiet planning with friends and family turn into smash doings!!!

BALBOA BAY CLUB TO VISIT SMCC

EXCITING PLANS are in store for SMCC netters and tennis enthusiasts the weekend of Saturday January 28-Sunday January 29 when our Newport Harbor friends from the Balboa Bay Club will visit our shores and play interclub matches with our team. Sat. night another of those fabulous Tennis "Balls" will crash forth...with "tennis greats" as honored guests. An added feature will be a drawing for a painting by our very own tennis committee member artist Madeline Nielson. Proceeds from this generous gift will go toward the "backdrop fund". . . Save the date. (TENNIS "BALL" Saturday January 28).

SMCC BOATING LAKE—In June 1947 Shadow Mountain Country Club looked like this! . . . Ye editor on a hot summer day with daughter Joyce, age 3 (now married and Mrs. William Eugene Martin of Santa Barbara).
